IN MEMORY OF LITTLE

ELMER POWELL ROSE.

Friday, Nov. 1st at 1:30 a. m. the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rose, Jr., of this city, and carried their little darling boy to that Heavenly Home, his soul taking its flight to the God who gave it. He leaves a father, mother, many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Little Elmer was such a bright child and a favorite of all who knew him. All that loving ones could do was done, but the Father had a vacant place and He took him to be a sweet little angel. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Little Elmer, though they miss you in your home, you will be standing at the pearly gates of Heaven, beckoning loved ones to meet you there.

He was seven months and two days old.

Weep not, dear ones, as those that have no hope, for little Elmer is safe in the arms of Jesus, for He said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

His little body was laid to rest in the local cemetery. Sleep on little one in your snow white casket. The Father is caring for thee, though your body is lying in the silent tomb, your soul is singing, in Heaven above, where no sorrow is known or farewell tears are shed, let us all prepare to meet our darling on the other shore.

Sleep on our loved one,
Thou art at rest,
God called thee home
He knoweth best.

Work Getting Scarce.

Work for laboring men is getting scarce in and around Clay City just now. The planing mill of Swann-Day Lumber Company is closed down, the hoghead factory is also up with orders and is not working now, and no tides have come to bring logs to the big saw mill. Corn husking is about over and other farm work is very slack as is usual at this season of the year. There are many laborers who have good steady jobs and are all right, but to the large majority of them the pinch is in sight, unless more work is opened up, which will be the case soon as a log tide comes. Many have gone to the new railroad to work, but as many more will not do so on account of the danger attached to this kind of work. So many have been killed and injured on the new railroad construction as to cause some to remark they would rather risk their lives in a fighting army than on the railroad works.

Enormous Corn Crop.

While corn crops in Powell county on river farms are not so good as they were last year, the crop as a whole in the county is far above last years yield, occasioned by an average yield on the bottom land and far above the average yield on the upland. More than one thousand barrels of corn has been raised on many farms of the county. This is some corn for Powell county farms, and it sounds good to us. No persons or stock need suffer for feed if an equitable division can be made. The average yield of corn per acre for this state is 30 bushels, and that of Iowa is forty-five bushels. Iowa leads all other states. Powell county will surpass the average yield of Kentucky by several bushels, and will not fall far short of Iowa. It is nothing uncommon to see a field in this county upon which 60 and 75 bushels per acre have been grown and these are big yields too. One farm boy under adverse circumstances has grown eighty-nine bushels of corn upon one acre. This was upon naturally thin upland. Powell is far from being the worst county in the state, though many of her people may think so and migrate to states that do not grow corn like we do. Our land when properly farmed will also grow oats, wheat, rye and grass. The greatest trouble with the county is that we are slow to learn what we can best do with our land, and fail to practice the slogan. "Keep your farm now and in a few years it will keep you." Successful farming is in growing big crops and at the same time making your land better all the while. This is being done by some few farmers in Powell county today and should be done by all of them.

Clark county has become alarmed over the sudden outbreak of lawlessness in her bounds. Murders, killings and assassinations are of frequent occurrence of late it seems in that good old county. Too much booze and too much railroading.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hall, of Stanton, a lovely little daughter. Mrs. Hall is in a hospital at Lexington. Mrs. C. Shimmessel mother of Mrs. Hall has gone to Lexington to be with her daughter.

Dr. M. B. White has returned from a week's visit to his home at Flemingsburg.

J. F. Clark has returned to the Old Mason's Home at Shelbyville.

H. G. Crabtree was in Frankfort yesterday on a business mission.

Gets Life Sentence.

Kelly Robinson who promiscuously fired into a crowd of boys on the streets of Jackson on the night of October 2, and killed Simpson Baugh, the seventeen-year-old son of Wm. Baugh, formerly of this city, was last week found guilty of murder in the Morgan Circuit Court and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary. The trial was tried in Morgan county upon change of venue from the Breathitt Circuit Court. It will be remembered that immediately after the shooting Robinson was arrested and placed in jail, but escaped from the jail two days later. He was arrested again at Columbus, Ohio where he had enlisted in the U. S. army.

Announces for U. S. Senate.

Governor Beckham has announced for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Bradley. There is opposition to the Governor and an effort will be made to get a candidate to oppose him, but this is hardly probable as the Governor is too strong. He could have been in the Senate today instead of Bradley had he compromised with the whiskey ring, and they are fighting him now.

Hunting Laws in Brief.

Every hunter in Kentucky must have a State Hunter's License, except those who hunt on their own land or leased land or adjoining land.

You cannot buy or sell game from States which prohibit same.

You may kill squirrels from June 15 to February 1.

You may kill wild ducks from August 15 to April 1.

You may kill wild goose from August 15 to April 1.

You may kill woodcock from June 20 to February 1.

You may kill quail from November, 15 to January 1.

You may kill doves from August 1 to February 1.

The sale of wild turkeys is prohibited. Quail or partridge must not be taken by net, snare, trap or box at any time.

No person or company shall ship wild turkey, pheasant, partridge, quail or grouse, unless lawfully killed and in possession of a hunter.

Rabbits and squirrels must not be killed between September 15 and November 15, but rabbits can be taken with dogs at any time.
